Report: August 2022

The month of August 2022 was all about gearing up for September! Since this will be our first total return to in-person experiences and learning post covid, we want to ensure we put our best foot forward come September.

University of Lethbridge Committees

During the month of August I personally attend The following committee meetings:

- UofL Sexual Violence Policy Review Committee Meeting - August 04 & August 24

Meeting with Students

- During the month of August, I met with 1 student regarding an academic concern with a course.
- I also met with various ULSU Faculty Representatives to discuss the needs of the students in their faculties and some individual student concerns that have been brought to the Students' Union in terms of course and course delivery.
