  - 1.11. Misrepresenting their position or the powers associated with that position.
2. Section 1 applies equally to executive members of any body created under ULSU auspices, and their appointed representatives.
3. A member must declare any potential conflict of interest, and refrain from participating in deliberations, or voting in respect to that interest.
4. No member of the Executive Council or the Chief Returning Officer may hold a remunerated position with the ULSU during their term of office.
5. The ULSU shall not enter into any contract that compromises the integrity of the ULSU by working against the objects or legislation of the ULSU.
6. The General Assembly shall not enter into a contract with any entity in which a member of the General Assembly or their family has a material interest.
7. No member of the ULSU shall knowingly enter into a conflict of interest.

BYLAW 23 – REMOVAL OF GENERAL ASSEMBLY MEMBERS FROM OFFICE

Last Amended March 27, 2019

1. Any member of the General Assembly can anonymously submit a grievance to a member of the Executive Council, and then the General Assembly has the obligation to consider:
  - 1.1. The member of the ULSU is absent for two (2) consecutive General Assembly meetings or any three (3) throughout the academic year, unless justifiable reason is established and accepted by the General Assembly;
  - 1.2. The member of the ULSU fails to uphold their hour requirements or office hours if required for that member;
  - 1.3. The member of the ULSU is found to be involved in a conflict of interest as outlined in the ULSU Constitution;
  - 1.4. The member of the ULSU is convicted by legal authorities for an indictable offense;
  - 1.5. The member of the ULSU is neglecting the duties associated with their position as outlined in the ULSU legislation;
  - 1.6. A petition, signed by no less than ten percent (10%) of the active members of the ULSU, is received by the General Assembly calling for the discipline of a member of the ULSU which cites grievances against the member;
  - 1.7. The member of the ULSU does not hand in required reports before the established deadlines on two (2) occasions;
  - 1.8. The member of the ULSU knowingly misrepresents the ULSU or any other member of the ULSU to any body. This includes, but is not limited to:
    - 1.8.1. Issuing a quote on behalf of a member of the ULSU without their knowledge or consent;
    - 1.8.2. Incorrectly communicating the beliefs or values of a member of the ULSU;
    - 1.8.3. Unlawfully altering or changing official minutes of the ULSU or any body created under its auspices.
  - 1.9. The member speaks on behalf of the ULSU in opposition to a decision made by the General Assembly after a vote;
  - 1.10. The member of the ULSU reveals confidential information;
  - 1.11. The member of the ULSU misuses the privileges of office;
  - 1.12. The General Assembly rules that the member is grossly incompetent, guilty of negligence, or in violation of the Code of Conduct Bylaw;
  - 1.13. The member has continually failed to follow the orders of the General Assembly of Executive Council; and/or,
  - 1.14. The member is no longer an active member of the ULSU.
2. Procedure for considering discipline or impeachment of a member of the General Assembly:
  - 2.1. A reasonable effort will be made to give a member two (2) week's notice prior to the General Assembly meeting regarding grievances against them, to allow for the member to prepare an appeal;

- 2.1.1. The General Assembly has the right to suspend the member with or without pay during this period; and further,
    - 2.1.2. Should the member be cleared of the grievances against them by order of the General Assembly, the member will be paid for the time of suspension.
  - 2.2. No less than two (2) weeks after the member in question has been given notice, a motion citing the grievances against the member must be put on the floor during a properly convened meeting of the General Assembly;
    - 2.2.1. If a motion is put forth to remove or consider discipline or consider impeachment of a member of the General Assembly, the General Assembly is responsible to adjudicate on the merit of the member's reason.
  - 2.3. The member in question will be given adequate time during the meeting of the General Assembly, in which the discipline or impeachment is being considered, to present an explanation for their behaviour prior; and,
  - 2.4. A two-thirds (2/3) majority vote is needed for the member to be impeached.
3. Resignation
  - 3.1. Any member wishing to resign must do so in writing to the Chair of the General Assembly;
  - 3.2. The Chair must present any letters of resignation at the next regularly convened General Assembly meeting;
  - 3.3. Resignations take effect on the date specified in the letter of resignation; and,
  - 3.4. Letters of resignation will be filed by the President.

BYLAW 24 – THE CHIEF RETURNING OFFICER

Last Amended April 15, 2020

1. The Chief Returning Officer is an officer of the ULSU for the duration of the academic year.
2. The Chief Returning Officer must be an active member of the ULSU;
  - 2.1. The General Manager will be acting CRO until an active member can be hired.
  - 2.2. While the General Manager is acting as CRO, they will be granted authority to carry out all CRO duties.
3. The Chief Returning Officer should be hired no later than four (4) weeks from the commencement of the fall semester.
  - 3.1. The President and VP Operations and Finance will oversee the General Manager in hiring the CRO.
4. The Students' Union must advertise the position on the ULSU Website, for two (2) consecutive weeks.
5. If a vacancy occurs in the office of the CRO, the Executive Council will advertise and post the position as time allows.
6. The CRO will provide guidance and supervision regarding the conduct of all elections and referenda;
7. Active members of the ULSU who are not eligible for the position of CRO shall include:
  - 7.1. Current members of the ULSU General Assembly;
  - 7.2. Executive members of any ULSU Club;
  - 7.3. Executive members of any ULSU Greek Life Organization; and,
  - 7.4. Any active member who is in a conflict of interest for an election or referenda;
8. If the CRO is found to be in a conflict of interest by the General Assembly, the General Assembly will decide whether the ULSU General Manager will become acting CRO for a particular election or referendum, or whether a new CRO will be hired.
9. The CRO will not be eligible to be nominated as a candidate for election and may not run a campaign in support of or against any referendum.

10. The CRO may cast a vote for each election position or referendum question which will be placed in a sealed envelope in the ULSU safe. This vote will not be counted in any General Election, By-election or Referendum, except in cases in which an official recount yields a tie.
11. The CRO will perform all duties assigned to them by this or any other bylaw unless otherwise delegated by the General Assembly.
12. The CRO, or delegate, will chair the Town Hall Meeting held regarding elections or referenda.
13. The CRO will advertise election information, through appropriate media, outlining:
  - 13.1. The nomination period, positions available for nomination, and the date of the mandatory Orientation Session at least two (2) weeks prior to the opening of the nomination period; and,
  - 13.2. The days of voting for elections, plebiscites and referenda and polling booths locations at least two (2) weeks prior to the opening of the nomination period.
14. The CRO will hire poll clerks, or liaison with the University's Information Technology Department, no later than two (2) weeks prior to the election, and/or referendum.
15. The CRO must make public and maintain the following office hours:
  - 15.1. For a general election, the CRO will be available for a minimum of:
    - 15.1.1. Four (4) hours during the week prior to the close of nominations;
    - 15.1.2. Nine (9) hours per week from the first day of campaigning to the last day of voting. These office hours must fall during regularly scheduled class weeks; and,
    - 15.1.3. One (1) hour per day for three days following voting;
  - 15.2. For a referendum, the CRO will be available for a minimum of:
    - 15.2.1. Four (4) hours during the week beginning two weeks before the referendum or plebiscite; and,
    - 15.2.2. One (1) hour per day for the week prior and during the referendum or plebiscite.
16. The CRO will count all election ballots, in the case paper ballots are used.
17. The CRO is, in conjunction with the Communications Coordinator, responsible for ensuring the publication of the official press release of the results following an election, by-election, or referendum.
18. Remuneration of the CRO will be governed by the CRO Remuneration Policy.

19. The CRO will prepare a written report consisting of results from the election or referendum, a general summary of events as they occurred, and any suggestion for future elections or referenda;
  - 19.1. This report must be submitted to the Students' Union General Assembly no later than three (3) weeks after the official results of the elections, referendum or plebiscite have been posted; and,
  - 19.2. All reports must be submitted on time in order for the CRO to receive their honoraria.

20. The CRO will work in conjunction with the General Manager, and be accountable to the General Assembly.

21. The CRO must hold an orientation session for any campaigning within forty-eight (48) hours of the closing of the nomination period. The orientation session must include, but is not limited to, an overview of the pertinent bylaws to the campaigning, as follows:
  - 21.1. For the General Election, the orientation must include an overview of the General Elections and By-Elections Bylaw, the Code of Conduct Bylaw, the Campaigns for Election Candidates or Referenda Bylaw, the Voting and Eligibility Bylaw, and the powers, responsibilities and duties of each member of the General Assembly;
  - 21.2. For Referenda, the orientation must include an overview of the Referenda Bylaw, the Code of Conduct Bylaw, the Voting and Eligibility Bylaw, and the Campaigns for Election Candidates and Referenda Bylaw; and/or,
  - 21.3. If an organizer of a campaign against an election candidate or an organizer of a campaign for or against a referenda come forward after the nomination period, the CRO will make provisions for them to obtain the appropriate documentation as per the Campaigns for Election Candidates and Referenda Bylaw, and host an additional orientation session.

BYLAW 25 – VOTING AND ELIGIBILITY

Last Amended April 15, 2020

1. Any active member of the ULSU may vote in an election, by-election or referendum.
  - 1.1. Only ratified voting members of the General Assembly may vote in an internal by-election;
2. Eligibility
  - 2.1. An active member of the Students' Union may vote for Academic Representative candidates running to represent the faculty in which they are registered and on the campus at which they attend classes;
    - 2.1.1. If an active member is registered in a combined degree program, they are eligible to vote as a member of each faculty or school in which they are registered in;
  - 2.2. An active member of the Students' Union may vote for the candidates running for the position of Residence Representative only if they reside in the University of Lethbridge residences;
  - 2.3. An active member of the Students' Union may vote for the Calgary Campus Representative only if they are designated by the University of Lethbridge Registrar as attending classes on the University of Calgary Campus;
  - 2.4. All active members of the Students' Union may vote for the positions of President, VP Academic, VP External, VP Operations and Finance and VP Student Affairs;
  - 2.5. An active member of the Students Union may vote for the International Student Representative only if they are designated by the University of Lethbridge Registrar as an international student; and,
  - 2.6. An active member of the Students' Union may vote for the Indigenous Student Representative only if they are designated by the University of Lethbridge Registrar as an Indigenous student.
3. List of Electors
  - 3.1. The CRO, on behalf of the General Assembly, will obtain a list of the active members of the Students' Union from the Registrar's Office;
    - 3.1.1. The list will divide all active members by the aforementioned differentiations to which members are designated by the University of Lethbridge Registrar; and,
    - 3.1.2. When the CRO is satisfied that the lists meet the specifications of this bylaw, the CRO will declare them the Official Voters List.
4. Voting
  - 4.1. For online voting, an eligible voter will be permitted to vote one (1) time by logging into a secure site using their University of Lethbridge username and password;
  - 4.2. For printed ballot voting, an eligible voter will be permitted to vote one (1) time upon producing their University of Lethbridge ID card, and being cross-referenced against the Official Voters List.

- 4.3. Any member of the Students' Union who votes more than once will be guilty of an offense and will face a fine of one hundred dollars ($100.00), and may face other penalties at the discretion of the University Discipline Committee.
5. Polling Stations and Absentee Voting
    - 5.1. Voting for any Students' Union election or referendum will occur during a regular class week at designated polling stations on the University of Lethbridge campus in Lethbridge, or on a designated secure website;
    - 5.2. If an active member of the ULSU directly demonstrates to the CRO, or delegate, their inability to cast a ballot during polling hours then, at the discretion of the CRO, and subject to the availability of official ballots, the CRO may authorize an absentee balloting procedure whereby the expressed wishes of the voter are made known directly to the CRO via email, telephone, letter, fax, or as approved by the CRO; however,
      - 5.2.1. The CRO may require any active member requesting use of the absentee ballot to forward a copy of their University of Lethbridge student identification card; and,
      - 5.2.2. The CRO will keep a list of the names and contact information of absentee voters and the CRO will identify each absentee ballot without identifying each voter; and,
    - 5.3. Online voting will be open twenty four (24) hours a day until voting ceases;
    - 5.4. Paper ballot voting polls will be open from 9:00 am. to 4:30 pm. and from 5:30 pm. To 9:30 pm during the days established by the CRO for an election or referendum.
  6. Counting
    - 6.1. Before counting begins, the CRO will cast a vote for each position or referendum and seal each paper ballot in a separate envelope, except in the case of an internal by-election, as witnessed by the General Manager;
      - 6.1.1. The CRO's votes will be kept in the ULSU safe;
      - 6.1.2. In the case of a tie, the CRO will recount the ballots and, should a tie still exist, the CRO will break the tie by revealing their vote;
      - 6.1.3. The vote cast by the CRO will not be revealed if a tie does not occur; and,
      - 6.1.4. The vote cast by the CRO will be destroyed by the General Manager sixty (60) days following the official press release of the results of the election or referendum;
    - 6.2. Should the voting be online, the University's Information and Technology Department will report on voting results;
    - 6.3. In the event of a paper ballot, procedure for counting will be as follows:
      - 6.3.1. Ballots will be counted by the CRO immediately following the closing of the polling stations on the final day of voting;
      - 6.3.2. During the counting or collection of the official count of the ballots of an election, only the CRO, and the Executive Assistant or General Assembly Chair, and all scrutineers may be present;

- 6.3.3. Once counting has commenced, no person will be allowed to leave or enter the room in which counting is taking place without supervision, as approved by the CRO;
- 6.3.4. Each candidate will be permitted to appoint one (1) scrutineer to be present during the counting of the ballots;
- 6.3.5. All appointments for scrutineers must be submitted to the CRO seventy-two (72) hours prior to start of the voting period;
- 6.3.6. The role of the scrutineer is:
  - 6.3.6.1. To serve as an observer during the process of counting ballots;
  - 6.3.6.2. Not to count the ballots, or in any way to touch the ballots;
  - 6.3.6.3. To assess and confirm the nature of spoiled ballots;
  - 6.3.6.4. To confirm that the programs used to collect an electronic ballot are not designed to alter the results in any way; and,
  - 6.3.6.5. To call for an unofficial recount on behalf of the candidate or slate which they represent;
- 6.3.7. A scrutineer may request up to 5 recounts during the counting of the ballots;
- 6.3.8. All ballots will be destroyed sixty (60) days after the date of the election or referendum;
- 6.4. Recount of ballots for a paper ballot:
  - 6.4.1. Application for an official recount of ballots may be made by candidates in writing, and must be hand-delivered to the CRO within forty-eight (48) hours of the unofficial announcement by the CRO of the results of the election, referendum; and,
    - 6.4.1.1. After this period, should no recounts be requested nor disciplinary actions be underway, the results of the election or referendum will be official;
  - 6.4.2. Candidates have the right to request one (1) official recount; and,
  - 6.4.3. This does not include unofficial recounts requested by scrutineers during the ballot counting procedure.

7. Internal By-Election

- 7.1. An internal by-election shall be held at a regularly convened General Assembly meeting as required by Bylaw 26 – General Elections and By-elections.
- 7.2. In an Internal By-election, only ratified members of the General Assembly may cast a vote;
  - 7.2.1. The President shall cast their vote in a sealed envelope ranking all candidates numerically in order of preference for each position contested;
- 7.3. In the case of a tie, the sealed vote from the President shall be counted to determine a winner;
- 7.4. Immediately following the Internal By-election, winning candidates are invited to sit at the board table as non-voting members until the ratification of election results at the next regularly convened General Assembly meeting.

BYLAW 26 – GENERAL ELECTIONS AND BY-ELECTIONS

Last Amended April 15, 2020

1. The ULSU shall hold a General Election annually, in the spring semester, in order to fill each position on the General Assembly except the First Year Representative position.
  - 1.1. Election Dates
    - 1.1.1. The dates for the General Election will be set by the Executive Council, in consultation with the CRO, prior to the commencement of the Spring semester, and the approved dates must include:
      - 1.1.1.1. The time and date that the nomination period opens;
      - 1.1.1.2. The time and date that the nomination period closes;
        - 1.1.1.2.1. Nomination period must last for five (5) consecutive business days;
      - 1.1.1.3. The time and date of the orientation session;
      - 1.1.1.4. The time and date that campaigning may begin;
      - 1.1.1.5. The time and date that campaigning must cease; and,
        - 1.1.1.5.1. Campaigning period must last for a minimum of five (5) business days; and,
      - 1.1.1.6. The time and date on which polling stations will be open.
        - 1.1.1.6.1. Polling stations must be open for three (3) consecutive business days;
    - 1.2. Nominations and Eligibility of Candidates
      - 1.2.1. Any person wishing to be nominated as a candidate must fulfill all candidacy requirements stated in the bylaw governing the position they wish to be nominated for;
      - 1.2.2. A prospective candidate, in order to be nominated, must:
        - 1.2.2.1. Be a student at the University of Lethbridge;
        - 1.2.2.2. Fill out the official ULSU nomination form in ink including their name, phone number, University of Lethbridge student identification number, and position for nomination;
        - 1.2.2.3. Sign the nomination form in the presence of the CRO, Administrative Assistant, or Executive Assistant. The form must be initialed by the CRO, Administrative Assistant or Executive Assistant;
        - 1.2.2.4. Confirm, by signing the nomination form, that they shall comply with all ULSU legislation;
        - 1.2.2.5. Have the official ULSU nomination form signed by ten (10) active members of the ULSU, including their student identification numbers and signatures;
        - 1.2.2.6. Pay a nomination deposit to the CRO or the ULSU Administrative Assistant if running for an Executive Council position, as outlined in the Elections and Referenda Expense and Fee Policy;

- 1.2.2.6.1. The deposit shall be refunded in full to a candidate for an Executive Council position if they receive a minimum of ten percent (10%) of the votes for that position;
- 1.2.2.7. Include a letter from the University of Lethbridge Registrar verifying that the nominee is in good academic standing as per the academic standards laid out in the University of Lethbridge Calendar;
- 1.2.2.8. Include a financial standing report obtained via the Cash Office section of The Bridge Web Information System verifying that the nominee has paid at least 50% of their total student fees for the semester;
- 1.2.2.9. Submit the official nomination form, the academic standing letter, the financial standing report, and the deposit if required, to the CRO, the ULSU Administrative Assistant or the Executive Assistant before the closing of the nomination period;
- 1.2.3. A nominee may request and receive special exemption to sections of Bylaw 26 General Elections and By-Elections, via approval from the General Assembly. Such request must be made either to the CRO or the Executive Council 48 hours prior to nominations close to ensure appropriate time for a mailbox ballot of the General Assembly;
- 1.2.4. Refunds shall not be made available to candidates who are disqualified from or withdraw from the election;
- 1.2.5. Members of the ULSU may only be nominated for one (1) position on the General Assembly per election;
- 1.2.6. Any person who was elected to the General Assembly and then impeached shall not be eligible to be nominated for any position;
- 1.2.7. A candidate's nomination shall not be deemed valid unless the candidate, or a delegate, as approved by the CRO, attends the orientation session as required by the ULSU; and,
- 1.2.8. If any candidate is not able to attend, they must submit written notification to the CRO at least forty-eight (48) hours before the orientation session; and,
  - 1.2.8.1. The CRO must make a ruling as to the inability of the potential candidate to attend the orientation, and must render the decision on and relay the decision to the potential candidate within twenty-four (24) hours of receiving the notice.
- 1.3. The Ballot
  - 1.3.1. Each position shall be on either a printed or an electronic ballot;
  - 1.3.2. The title of the position to be elected shall appear immediately above the names of the candidates for that position;
  - 1.3.3. Such instructions to the elector as may be necessary to inform them of the manner in which the ballot is to be marked shall be printed at the top of the ballot;
  - 1.3.4. The names of each candidate shall be arranged in the following order
    - 1.3.4.1. The candidate's surname;
    - 1.3.4.2. The candidate's preferred name, as given by the Registrar's Office;

- 1.3.5. No titles, degrees, prefixes or suffixes shall be included with any candidate's name on the ballot;
  - 1.3.6. The name of each candidate shall appear on the ballot in a randomly enumerated order, and shall be written in text that is as similar as possible in format to other names;
  - 1.3.7. All ballots shall be as similar in format as possible;
  - 1.3.8. The ballot shall be printed on white paper, or, should the ballot be electronic, the background shall be white;
  - 1.3.9. There shall be a box to the immediate left of each candidate's name, which shall be used to indicate a vote for that candidate;
  - 1.3.10. Below the box used to indicate a vote for the last candidate for each position shall be a box that can be used to indicate a vote against all candidates for that position, and that box shall be labeled "none of the above";
    - 1.3.10.1. In the case that there is only one candidate for a position, a short statement shall appear below that box marked "none of the above" explaining that the candidate for that position must receive a majority of the votes cast to be elected;
  - 1.3.11. Below the box labeled "none of the above" shall be a box used to abstain from voting in favour or opposed to any candidate, and that box shall be labeled "abstain from voting";
    - 1.3.11.1. This box will be the default selection for any vote, and does not count towards the majority vote.
  - 1.3.12. In the case that printed ballots are used, they shall be printed only when authorized by a motion of the Executive Council, shall all be signed individually by the CRO, and shall be audited by the General Manager for compliance with ULSU legislation;
  - 1.3.13. A "spoiled" ballot is any ballot which is not an official ballot, or upon which the intent of the voter is not clear as determined by the CRO; and,
  - 1.3.14. The CRO will ensure all used and unused ballots are transported to the Students' Union General Manager's office or the Security Services office after the closing of the polling stations each day.
- 1.4. Campaigning
- 1.4.1. Each candidate shall campaign in a reasonable and responsible manner, including:
    - 1.4.1.1. Being personally responsible and liable for any damages resulting from the campaign;
    - 1.4.1.2. Being responsible for ensuring that practices that are unfair to other campaigns, as determined by the CRO, are not followed by a candidate's supporters; and,
    - 1.4.1.3. Being responsible for complying with the provisions of ULSU legislation and regulations outlined during the orientation session.
- 1.5. Town Hall Meeting
- 1.5.1. A Town Hall Meeting shall be held at least forty-eight (48) hours prior to the commencement of the voting period;

- 1.5.2. The CRO, or delegate, shall chair the Town Hall meeting, held for the purpose of presenting the election candidates to the active members of the Students' Union; and,
- 1.5.3. Each candidate running for a position on the General Assembly is expected to give a campaign speech during the Town Hall meeting, subject to the rules and limitations imposed by the CRO.

2. By-Elections and Vacancies

- 2.1. If the position of President or any Vice President becomes vacant:
  - 2.1.1. Between May 1 and August 31, a by-election of all active members of the ULSU must occur before September 30;
  - 2.1.2. Between September 1 and January 31, a by-election of all active members of the ULSU must occur within three (3) regularly scheduled class weeks of the vacancy; and/or,
  - 2.1.3. Between February 1 and April 30, the duties of the President or Vice President will be carried out by the Executive Council until April 30;
- 2.2. The First Year Representative position will be voted in annually by internal by-election.
- 2.3. If the position of any Representative becomes vacant
  - 2.3.1. Between May 1 and August 31, an internal by-election shall be held at a properly convened General Assembly meeting to fill that position by September 30; and/or,
  - 2.3.2. Between September 1 and January 30, an internal by-election shall be held at a properly convened General Assembly meeting to fill that position within six (6) weeks;
  - 2.3.3. Between February 1 and April 30, the position will remain vacant;
  - 2.3.4. The member-elect will have full voting rights as a General Assembly member as of the ratification at the following meeting of the General Assembly; and,
  - 2.3.5. The member-elect shall not be responsible for any General Assembly related duties and shall not receive honoraria until the ratification of the by-election results;
- 2.4. By-Election Dates
  - 2.4.1. The Executive Council, in consultation with the CRO, will establish:
    - 2.4.1.1. The date or dates of the voting for any by-election which must occur during the fall or spring semesters; and,
    - 2.4.1.2. The dates for the filing of nominations, which must occur during the fall or spring semesters;
- 2.5. The nominations and eligibility of candidates for a by-election will be the same as for a general election;
- 2.6. Advertising Prior to a by-election, advertising must occur for a minimum of one (1) week, with reasonable effort invested to notify as many active members of the ULSU as possible.

3. Ratification of General Election or By-Election Results

- 3.1. At the first regularly convened General Assembly meeting following a General Election or By- Election, the General Assembly must ratify the results.

  - 3.6. In the case that printed ballots are used, they shall be printed only when authorized by a motion of the Executive Council, shall all be signed or stamped individually by the CRO, and shall be audited by the General Manager for compliance with ULSU legislation; and,
  - 3.7. The CRO will ensure all used and unused ballots are transported to the Students' Union General Manager's office or the Security Services office after the closing of the polling stations each day.
4. Fee
  - 4.1. Any changes to Students' Union fees or changes to levies for any student organization that will affect all active members are subject to the approval of all active members by means of a referendum; however,
    - 4.1.1. Any changes to Students' Union fees or changes to levies for any student organization that will affect a subset of active members are subject to the approval of that subset of active members by means of a referendum;

- 4.2. The result of a referendum pertaining to fees must be known by the University's deadline for fee changes to take effect for the following academic year;
  - 4.3. Should the result of a referendum pertaining to fees be decided later than the University's deadline for fee changes, the change to fees cannot take effect until a full academic year ends after the current academic year elapses; and,
  - 4.4. All changes in fees are subject to the approval of the University of Lethbridge Board of Governors.
5. Orientation Session
    - 5.1. An orientation session will be held for referenda, and any representatives of a position being taken on the referendum, or delegate, as approved by the CRO, must attend the orientation session; and,
    - 5.2. If any representative for a position being taken on the referendum or plebiscite is not able to attend, they must submit written notification to the CRO at least forty-eight (48) hours before the orientation session; and,
      - 5.2.1. The CRO must make a ruling as to the inability of the representative for a position being taken on the referendum to attend the orientation, and must render the decision on and relay the decision to the representative for a position being taken on the referendum within twenty-four (24) hours of receiving the notice.
6. Campaigning
    - 6.1. Each representative for a position being taken on a referendum will campaign in a reasonable and responsible manner, including:
      - 6.1.1. Being personally responsible and liable for any damages resulting from the campaign;
      - 6.1.2. Being responsible for ensuring that practices that are unfair to other campaigns, as determined by the CRO, are not followed by the representative's supporters; and,
      - 6.1.3. Being responsible for complying with the provisions of both the U of L and the ULSU legislation and regulations outlined during the orientation session.
7. Town Hall Meeting
    - 7.1. A Town Hall Meeting will be held at least forty-eight (48) hours prior to commencement of voting;
    - 7.2. The Chief Returning Officer, or delegate, will chair this Town Hall meeting, held for the purpose of presenting the referendum information to the active members of the Students' Union; and,
    - 7.3. If any representative for a position being taken on a referendum is unable to be present at this meeting, they may appoint a delegate to represent them, subject to approval by the CRO.

8. Ratification of Results

- 8.1. For a referendum to be binding at least 10% of the official voters list must place a vote;
- 8.2. At the first meeting following a referendum of the student body, the General Assembly must ratify the results of the referendum.

BYLAW 31 - STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

Last Amended March 27, 2019

1. The General Assembly has the authority to ratify, or deny ratification, to any student group, including clubs, organizations and/or committees, within the limits prescribed within ULSU Legislation.
2. The ULSU may provide finances and assets to ratified student groups to aid in the fulfillment of the objects and purposes for which such groups were established, provided those objects are compatible to those of the ULSU.
3. Each ratified group shall be accountable to the General Assembly regarding the finances and assets granted to them by the ULSU.
4. Failure of a ratified group to properly account to the General Assembly upon request, or failure to fulfill the objects and purposes for which the group was established, may result in deratification of the group by the General Assembly.
5. All ratified groups must obey ULSU legislation, and follow statutes of the Province of Alberta, and the Government of Canada.
6. Organizations which receive a student levy through the ULSU will be given the money in trust. Should the organization fail to provide proper financial statements, or should the statements indicate mismanagement of funds, the ULSU reserves the right to withhold any funds or resources until such time as the situation has been properly dealt with at the discretion of the General Assembly.
