Input for Fall Teaching and Learning Committee

Richard, the VP of student affairs, asked for input on the documents the Student Wellness, Support, and Community Building Working Group had prepared to present to the Fall Teaching and Learning Committee. I offered some suggestions about providing students with opportunities to socialize despite COVID-19 and even some suggestions for when classes return to in person.

Valentine's Event (Online Engagement Committee)

William suggested at one of the Online Engagement Committee meetings that we host a Valentine's day mingle on discord. I assisted him at the session and ensured everyone was having a good time.

St. Patrick's Day Event (Online Engagement Committee)

As the online engagement committee had previously discussed, I came up with the idea of a Leprechaun Hunt activity for St. Patrick's day. I spent some time this month figuring out the details (rules, prizes, etc.) and communicating the details to my fellow committee members. We are now ready to move forward with the activity, starting next week!

Online Engagement Committee Meeting

At the first meeting only William and I were present so we discussed some of the things I would like to carry out, such as the first year night and St. Patrick's Day Event. At the second meeting I relayed my ideas to the rest of the group and Becca and I reached out to some people to see if they would be interested in speaking at the first year night. Unfortunately, we have not heard anything back.

GFC Library Committee Meeting

The GFC Library Committee proceeded as usual, Dr. Christopher Nicol, the University Librarian gave his report. We heard the budget update, research services update and the COVID-19 update. Some important documents were brought to attention by the librarians.

GA Meeting

The executive council delivered their monthly reports, with things becoming more busy there was a lot to be covered. GA members and executive council members informed us of the events and initiatives they are carrying out. Important items such as the transition schedule and responsibilities were brought to our attention. Decisions were made about expenditures.
