Advocacy Advisory Committee

On Monday, January 20th the ULSU Advocacy Advisory Committee met to discuss our upcoming initiatives and campaign. Our main points of discussion surrounded ideas to create a campaign to advocate against academic cuts.

ULSU General Assembly

On Wednesday, January 22nd the ULSU met for our monthly General Assembly. We had one presentation for Earth Day to which we approved QIP funding to support this initiative. We then discussed the details of the budget for Last Class Bash, a proposal for Stress Less Week, an Air Hockey Table, and new Smart Board.

TEDxULeth Viewing Party

To support TEDx that happened at the U of L on Saturday, January 25th the ULSU partnered with the GSA and Alumni Association to host a TEDxULeth viewing party. I helped to welcome individuals who came into The Zoo and ensure they knew about the TEDx schedule and door prizes we were offering.

Health Sciences Grade Appeal Document Review

As a part of my duties as Health Sciences Representative I sit on the Health Sciences Grade Appeal committee. There was a student who wanted to appeal their course grade from Fall 2019, so I thoroughly reviewed the full grade appeal package from the student and professor before the Grade Appeal Committee meeting.

Health Sciences Grade Appeal Committee Meeting

On Wednesday, January 29th the Health Sciences Grade Appeal Committee met to organize our appeal procedures, discuss the appeal, review the appeal package, and decide on the outcome of the appeal.
