Highlights and Reflection on monthly activity

(Information of note, what went well, what did not)

This month ended up being a little bit busier than I anticipated it would! Taking part of the Academic Appeals Committee is a new experience as I never had to serve on it in my first year on the ULSU and it's a bit of a learning curve, but a rewarding one. It's interesting to see yet another part of the university and how it functions. Some of the meetings I anticipated happening back in my report for May did not come to fruition, but that is okay. I know the summer is busy for a lot of folks and none of them were so important that it was necessary they take place this month or at all through the summer months if it goes that way.

Projects in Progress

Completed Projects

(Projects that I have completed, what went well, what did not, and why)

Challenges I've Encountered:

(eg: I can't get volunteers, not enough funding, the equipment didn't work properly, etc.).

Goals I've Accomplished this Month:

(kept up with regular duties &/or accomplished additional goals)

Despite it being summer, I am glad that I was able to attend GFC and Academic Appeals committees this month. Typically I would've been busy with other things, but it just so happened that nothing clashed and I was happy to fulfill these duties as a GA member.

MOVING FORWARD

Current or Upcoming Tasks:

(upcoming activities or tasks I will be participating in or spearheading, possible timeline of completion, who will I be working with).

At this point, I have nothing solid planned. I intend to reach out shortly to some members of the executive team to start discussing my plans for the school year more in-depth and hopefully start laying out some groundwork so that my initiatives can take off quickly once the school year commences.

Goals for Next Month:

(What I would like to accomplish next month as a ULSU representative)

Hopefully arrange some meetings in July that weren't able to happen in June.

Important Dates/Deadlines:

(important deadlines related to my goals or position).
