Highlights and Reflection's

(Information of note, what went well, what did not)

November is always a busy time of year for ORS and Residence, has there are always lots of events being held in lieu of the end of the semester and exam season.

Winter Formal was a success! We had a good turn out, and residence truly enjoyed themselves, so that was very rewarding to see.

I have lots of preparation to do for the upcoming semester, but I'm looking forward to finishing this semester with some great events!

Challenges

(eg: I can't get volunteers, not enough funding, the equipment didn't work properly, etc.)

The balance of all of my roles was easier this month, as big challenges began wrapping up. Moving forward, I'm looking forward to the fresh semester while also getting to experience new challenges including our LRC Committee to review our constitution.
