All Candidates Forum

This was an incredibly educational event to become an informed voter in our recently passed federal election. This event was hosted in the Science Commons with our Lethbridge candidates in attendance. Each candidate gave an overview of their platform and answered student and audience submitted questions surrounding topics such as global warming, education, budgets, and LGBTQ+ rights.

Let's Talk About Sex Preparation

On Thursday, October 17th the ULSU in partnership with the Organization of Residence Students hosted a sex positive educational event "Let's Talk About Sex". I was honoured to put my passion for public health and health equity into this event by leading a group discussion. I created, rehearsed, and prepared worksheets to have an interactive session on LGBTQ+ equity and experiences.

Advocacy Advisory Committee Meeting

On Wednesday, October 16th I attended the first Advocacy Advisory Committee Meeting led by VP External Bailey Harray. In this meeting we discussed a timeline of various advocacy and policy related issues that would impact the school community (such as budget cuts and tuition policies) and planned out our goals for the year.

Let's Talk About Sex Set Up/Take Down

On Thursday, October 17th I helped to set up tables, prizes, and sexual health resources and helped to clean up afterwards.

Let's Talk About Sex Presentation

Our Let's Talk About Sex Event was split up into four breakout sessions participants would rotate around to. I had the please of facilitating a session on LGBTQ+ equity and experiences by facilitating an activity called "privilege for sale". The participants were split into two groups, and were given $600 and a list of 35 privileges that each cost $100. Participants worked through 35 privileges many LGBTQ+ folks in our community don't have and tried to determine which 6 privileges they would purchase with their $600. This facilitated incredible conversation around the realities many LGBTQ+ folks experience, and how to be more mindful and inclusive to everyone moving forward.

ULSU October General Assembly Meeting

On Thursday, October 17th I attended the October ULSU General Assembly meeting. At this meeting we recaped Let's Talk About Sex, reviewed general assembly policies, ratified clubs, and approved a Meliorist levy.

Let There Be Light Night

On Friday, October 18th I had the pleasure of attending the U of L's Let There Be Light Night on behalf of the ULSU. Here I had a chance to feel connected with the school alumni and congratulate several phenomenal individuals on their achievements built upon their educational successes at the U of L.

Halloween Cabaret Costume Judging

On Thursday, October 31st I had the pleasure of volunteering at the ULSU's annual Halloween Cabaret as a costume judge. I watched as individuals entered the cabaret, scored individual's costumes based on things like creativity and presentation, and collaborated with the other judges to crown the individual and group costume winners for the 2019 cabaret.
