

October 2023

Overview

There was a large shift to the provincial front this month. While there were less media appearances, provincial advocacy did not slow down. Many days were spent preparing for provincial advocacy week coming up in November, as well as preparing to meet with the Minister of Advanced Education.

Various other daily office tasks were undertaken throughout the month. Including supporting in various initiatives including assisting with Dirty Bingo, and helping our newly elected First Year Representative transition into the role.

As seen in the media this month:
